CODE OF CONDUCT

Intent

This code of conduct is one of the elements that bring the Maleny Show Society together. It describes who we are by way of acceptable behaviours and values. It is how we conduct ourselves within the organisation and in dealing with the public in situations where we are recognised as representing the Maleny Show Society. It represents the type of culture we strive to have and provides a shared expectation of the way we behave as individuals, towards each other, our members, sponsors, partners, staff, volunteers and other supporters. This Code supplements our legal obligations to other areas such as Health and Safety, Equal Opportunity and Privacy. It applies to all Maleny Show Society members and volunteers.

Purpose

The Maleny Show Society recognises the importance of a harmonious environment which actively promotes best practice. The purpose of this code of conduct is to describe the standards of behaviour and conduct, expected from members, contractors and volunteers in their dealings with customers, suppliers, clients, staff, contractors, volunteers, management, the general public and any other stakeholders.

The Maleny Show Society expects that all members, staff, contractors and volunteers will observe the standards set out in this Code of Conduct. Compliance with this Code is expected, and non-compliance may result in disciplinary action for employees, contractors (including temporary contractors) and volunteers who may have their contract or relationship with the Maleny Show Society terminated or not renewed

Compliance behaviours and actions:
